

Sedgefield Rock and Blues Club

5th April 2025

"He has been voted "Young Artist of the Year" at the UK Blues Awards for the last three consecutive years (2020, 2021, 2022) and he already has an impressive venue checklist, including Wembley Stadium, where he opened for The Who and has since gone on to play Hyde Park, with Pearl Jam, Stereophonics and Johnny Marr.

With his soulful blend of blues and his emotionally introspective songwriting, which sits alongside his impressive armoury of guitar playing."

James Gray Robson & The Lovely Burn

An alt. Americana inspired duo from the North East, soaring, emotive vocals, sparse percussion & warm country blues guitar.
